Start/finish: Traquiar House

Innerleithen, Scottish Borders

Entry cost £75

Rules and event regulations

Bikes, safety, courtesy, common sense

This event is mostly off road or on fire roads however there will be occasions when you will be required to cycle on some tarmac roads, these are NOT closed to vehicles. Signage will be in place along the entire course warning traffic of the event, but riders are always responsible for their own safety. You must follow the Highway Code at all times.

Every rider is responsible for their bike and equipment. The condition, quality and construction should be suitable to ensure the safety of yourself, other riders or other persons.

Helmets are compulsory and must be done up properly at all times when cycling. They must be in good condition.

Bar end plugs must be fitted.

All competitors must sign on and pick up their event number before riding the course.

If you retire for any reason please inform an event official, and you must return your timing chip at the end. If you don't, we'll have to charge you for it, and we'll have to send people out to find you.

Entries will be taken online and will be given on a first come first served basis.

All equipment used at an event must be fit for purpose and ridden / used at riders own risk.

Riders must cycle on the left, and be courteous and aware of other cyclists around you.

Riders must follow all event marshals' and event officials' instructions.

Use of a mobile phone while cycling is not permitted, you must pull to the roadside and stop if you wish to make/receive a phone call.

Use of a music player or other similar device with headphones is not permitted.

The Borders are beautiful, these roads are a haven for cyclists and other nature. Don't drop ANY litter.

The event will take place regardless of bad weather, unless the organisers deem there is a safety concern. If the event is stopped or re-routed for reasons of safety, there will be no refund available.

The organisers will endeavour to give all entrants a time derived from the electronic timing chip system provided. However, they are not responsible in the unlikely event of fault in the electronic timing system.

Toilets are marked on the course map. Please use them and respect local residents and the area.

Responsibilities

Riders attend the event on their own account and at their own risk. The rider is responsible for the safety of his bike and clothes. The organisers are not responsible and cannot be held responsible for any injuries and/or damages as results of any action during the event.

The organisers reserve the right to disqualify any rider in breach of any of these regulations. This agreement starts with the entry. The organisation reserves the right to make any necessary changes to, or even to cancel, the whole event according to safety problems at any time, or on official orders, government laws or other unforeseen circumstances.

Entry/Registration is only available through the system on this website.

Over 16s only.

If the registered starter cannot attend the event, they have no right to reclaim the registration fee. No rider may use another rider's event number.

Event Cancellation

If the safety of participants and/or staff becomes an issue we may have to cancel the event, or if we have to cancel the event for reasons outwith our control, this will be announced on the event website as soon as possible before the event. If the event is cancelled we will refund a percentage of the entry fee taking into account any outlaid costs.

Change of Event Date

If for any reason an event is cancelled or the date has to be changed due to force majeure, please review the specific event details, rules and terms & conditions which have been documented by the Event Organiser. If a refund is appropriate, the participant should contact the Event Organiser.

Number boards

Every rider will get a number board. Number boards must be fixed on the handlebars and must be readable throughout the ride.

Feed stations

A feed and water station will be available along the course, but all riders are responsible to supply sufficient food to complete the ride.

Waiver of liability

Every rider understands and admits that his participation in the event is voluntary. He assumes full responsibility for any injuries or damages from his participation in the event. He recognises and understands that the activities may be hazardous, that his participation is solely at his own risk and that he assumes full responsibility for any resulting injuries and damages that may occur.

Every rider affirms, that he is in good health. He declares that he is physically fit and capable to participate in the event.

Every rider has to acknowledge that he has read and understand this entire waiver of liability and agrees to be legally bound by it.

Withdrawal

The event officials hold the right to withdraw starters if they feel there is a danger for the starter or any other person.
